

US Market Logic, LLC is pleased to announce a strategic alliance with Attronica, Inc. This alliance will add multiple expert services for clients of USML. These services will be offered through USML's Commercial, Government and Educational advisory:

- Product Procurement
- Product Assembly
- Product Integration & Testing
- Product Storage
- Worldwide Product Shipping & Support Services

Headquartered in Maryland, Attronica has been serving the computing and professional services needs of clients for 40 years. Additionally, Attronica is a certified Capital Region Minority Supplier Development Council (CRMSDC) member.

This alliance greatly augments the services of US Market Logic, LLC, allowing International clients access to a US-based assembly and logistics services company, with a focus on building their success in the US marketplace.
